Spiritual Directors in Europe

Early March saw around 50 people from around Europe gathering at Minsteracres for their annual Conference. It was the first time the conference had been held in the UK so there was a certain amount of pride that people from 17 nations would be coming to the north-east. Our visitors came from as far away as Moldova, Latvia and Estonia—as well as from Finland, Denmark, Norway and Iceland. There was even a special guest from the United States.

The theme of the Conference was “Nourishing Roots for ‘Dialogue and Peace’ in the land of the Northern Saints”. The keynote was set by Kathryn and Sr Sheila McNamara—looking at how Christianity was established in this part of the world and how it spread throughout Europe with missions from Iona and Lindisfarne. We each took two saints as models for different forms of spirituality and were delighted that folk took them to their hearts. In fact, several asked for the PowerPoint presentation to take back to share with their communities!

As we pointed out, it was hard to know whether it was the lives of these saints who made this part of the land holy—or the land that helped to make them holy! But we emphasised that these were very human saints—friends, in fact—who would have been delighted to welcome them as we did in their name.

Of course, it is one thing to be told about the land and its saints—and quite another actually to walk it and visit some of the places in person. Jarrow Hall—formerly Bede’s World—opened its doors early for our group who were welcomed with coffee and a soup lunch and a tour around the museum (currently being refurbished but re-opening soon). One real highlight for them was praying in St Paul’s church—in the very place where Bede himself would have prayed. On then to Durham for prayer at Cuthbert’s tomb and to choral evensong. The final pilgrimage involved a 6.30 start for Holy Island where some very hardy souls walked the pilgrim poles to the island!

Prayer in St Paul’s

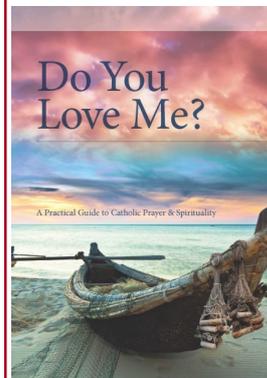

It was not all prayer and silence and conversation. Two evenings were given over to north-eastern entertainment—clog dancing and a ceilidh. It was great to hear people for whom English was a second (and even fourth) language joining in the singing of “Blaydon Races”.

Spiritual Directors in Europe was set up to support people in countries where the ministry is still being established—particularly in the east. It was wonderful to welcome the guests—to enrich their ministry—and to share the beauty and heritage of our countryside and saints with them all.

The Conference saw the first outing of the new labyrinth the Department has recently acquired. It is available for loan! Get in touch if interested!

Easter-time Reading

In previous issues of “Weavings”, we have mentioned the Bishop’s Conference book on Spirituality, “Do You Love Me?” You may be interested to know that we have managed to acquire some at a substantial reduction! We are able to offer them at £3.50 (cover price is £5.95).

It would make a good follow-up to Lent courses so if you would like a copy, please get in touch.

Date for your Diary

Following the very successful Interfaith gathering reflecting on the Mercy of God, another event is being planned. It is some time away but please get the date in your diary!

Interfaith Peace Pilgrimage to Flodden Field
and Crookham Peace Centre

FORWARD TOGETHER in Hope—along Cuddy's Corse

Soon after Tony Sacco took up his appointment as Development Officer for Forward Together in Hope, he mentioned an interest in organising a pilgrimage. Time passed but, as the process now enters a transition phase from consulting to implementing, it seemed a good opportunity to use St Cuthbert's Feast day as a day to walk and pray for our Diocese.

So, on a glorious spring day, around 25 people gathered in St Mary and St Cuthbert's Anglican church in Chester-le-Street to begin the pilgrimage. The church is close to the site where the body of St Cuthbert lay for over 100 years before the monks decided it needed to be moved. We do not know the exact route but Cuddy's Corse follows the progress of his body (or corpse/corse) from Chester-le-Street to Durham.

Pilgrims ranged in age from primary school children to people in their seventies. Apart from a couple of pulls, it is a comfortable walk taking in some lovely views and variety of countryside.

People were able to join us around the halfway mark when we stopped for welcome refreshments at Finchale Priory. After ice-creams and coffee, we prayed in the Priory ruins—delighting other visitors with a rousing rendition of "One more step along the road I go"!

The walk continued alongside the walls of Frankland prison until the turning of a corner gave us a first glimpse of our destination—Durham Cathedral. Here, we prayed at Cuthbert's tomb—and concluded with a short reflection by the tomb of Bede. It was great fun—a mix of walking—conversing and praying—as the best pilgrimages are!

Details of the pilgrimage route, with ideas for prayer along the way can be found on the diocesan website—along with other prayer walks around the diocese.
